

THE GREATEST HUNT

I set a goal, and I reached it.

You would think a story titled “The Greatest Hunt” would have to be about a new world record animal or some other phenomenal hunting feat. Well this isn’t. It just has all the elements that you would want in a perfect hunt. At least everything I could ask for. It has adventure, extreme effort, persistence, family, and fulfilling a long time goal hunting a very treasured species. That species is the majestic bighorn sheep and the hunting method is with the only way I hunt, with my bow.
